ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Board of Domestic Missions,

PRESENTED TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

MAY, 1865.

CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

To all to whom these presents shall come :

KNOW YE, That whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America have a Board of Domestic Missions, composed of ministers and laymen, members of the Presbyterian Church, the design of which is to afford aid to feeble Presbyterian churches in the support of pastors, to form new churches, and to supply destitute settlements with the stated ministry and gospel ordinances; and whereas, the aforesaid Board of Domestic Missions labours under serious disadvantages as to receiving donations and bequests, and as to the management of funds entrusted to them for the purposes designated in their Constitution, and in accordance with the benevolent intentions of those from whom such bequests and donations are received :

Therefore, William Brown, Williom Nassau, Sen., Matthew Newkirk, Solomon Allen, Alexander Symington, Ashbel Green, Cornelius C. Cuyler, William A. McDowell, and Thomas Hoge, citizens of the United States, and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and their successors, are hereby constituted and declared to be a body politic and corporate, which shall henceforth be known by the name of "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and as such, shall have perpetual succession, and be able to sue and be sued in all courts of record, and elsewhere; and to purchase and receive, take and hold, to them and their successors for ever, lands, tenements, hereditaments, money, goods, and chattels, and all kinds of estate which may be devised, bequeathed, or given to them, and the same to sell, alien, demise, and convey; also to make a common Seal, and the same to alter and renew at their pleasure; and also to make such rules, by-laws, and ordinances, as may be needful for the government of the said corporation, and not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this State: Provided always, that the clear yearly value of the real and personal estate held by the said corporation shall not at any time exceed the sum of two thousand dollars.

The Trustees above named shall hold their offices for one year from the date of their incorporation, and until their successors are duly qualified to take their places; who shall be chosen by the aforesaid Board of Domestic Missions, at such times, and in such way and manner as shall be prescribed by the said General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, provided not more than one-third of the Trustees shall be removed in any one year.

The Trustees hereby incorporated, and their successors, shall, subject to the direction of the said Board of Domestic Missions, have full power to manage the funds and property committed to their care, in such manner as shall be most advantageous, not being contrary to law.*

ASHBEL GREEN,

President of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

WILLIAM A. McDOWELL,

Corresponding Secretary and General Agent of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly.

* By an Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, in 1857, the word "Domestic" having been inserted in the corporate title of the Board of Trustees, we have inserted the word in the above copy of the original Charter.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1865.

THE Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, would represent to the General Assembly that, in their judgment, no report since the organization of the Board has been fraught with deeper interest, or furnished more satisfactory evidence of the wisdom and vigour with which its affairs have been prosecuted. It is manifest that the Board have been mindful of the signs of the times, and have been preparing to meet the enlarged responsibilities which God in his wondrous providence toward our beloved land, has devolved upon them.

The Committee recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That in view of the vast field for missionary labour opened up before the Church by the termination of the war, and the reëstablishment of the government, the Assembly enjoin upon the churches under their charge renewed effort and increased liberality to meet this great enlargement of the missionary work to which God in his providence so manifestly calls them, and particularly by every means in their power to increase the number of labourers in this field, now white for the harvest, and the occupation of which is hindered more by a deficiency of men than of means.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly approve of the action of the Board in the extra appropriation of twenty-five per cent., which they have been enabled to send to our missionaries, at a time when it was demanded by their necessities, and when their faithful and devoted labourers in their distant fields were under the pressure of a monetary crisis now happily past.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly direct the Board of Domestic Missions to take prompt and effectual measures to restore and build up the Presbyterian congregations in the Southern States of this Union, by the appointment and support of prudent and devoted missionaries.

Resolved, 4. That none be appointed but those who give satisfactory evidence of their loyalty to the national government, and that they are in cordial sympathy with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in her testimony on doctrine, loyalty, and freedom.

Resolved, 5. That special efforts be made to instruct and evangelize and gather into churches, on a credible profession of faith, the coloured population.

Resolved, 6. That in view of the extensive and urgent demand for pious and loyal ministers, elders and teachers, in the Southern States, such be earnestly recommended to direct their course to that now opening and inviting field, as presenting a loud call from the Lord Jesus Christ to pass over and help to rebuild that part of the American Zion which has been so sadly laid waste by the rebellion and civil war.

The Committee would further respectfully report that, agreeably to the order of the General Assembly, the books of the Board have been presented to them and examined and approved.

MONDAY, May 29th.

The following resolution was presented on the floor of the General Assembly:

Resolved. That the General Assembly requests each of the Presbyteries to take action, at the earliest practicable moment, to send, and when it can be done, to keep in the service of our Domestic Mission Board in the Southern field now open, one or more of their members; and directs that the Board of Missions pay travelling and other expenses of such delegates while employed in the service, and that no delegate be accepted for a shorter time than three months in the field assigned him.

On motion, this resolution was referred to the Standing Committee on Missions, who subsequently reported, and their report, which was adopted, is as follows:

“The Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions respectfully recommends that this General Assembly refer the above paper to said Board, and recommend it to their serious consideration, and direct it, as far as may be found practicable, to carry into effect the proposed plan of evangelical work in the border and other States of the South, having due regard to the rules adopted to regulate the action of the Board and the funds at its disposal.”

SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

FROM MARCH 1, 1864, TO MARCH 1, 1865.

IN presenting the sixty-third Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions to the General Assembly, we desire devoutly to utter our praise to the great Head of the Church for the means of success which He has graciously vouchsafed, in the management of the momentous affairs committed to our keeping. Amid the war which still afflicts our bleeding land, we have been permitted to enlarge our operations, and occupy new fields in the vast regions which, day by day, open upon an astonished world. A few only of our missionaries have been disturbed by the alarms of war. By some the storm swept, and though fearful while it lasted, it has left a wide and more beautiful field in which to labor.

Rev. L. H. Christian, D. D., is the only member of the Board who has exchanged the labors of earth for the rest of heaven.*

Five of our missionaries have ceased from their toils, and entered upon their reward: Rev. D. Motzer, of Maryland, Rev. C. B. Magill, of Iowa, Rev. P. Twichell, of New York, Rev. Thos. J. Taylor, of Illinois, and Rev. H. H. Humphreys, of Wisconsin—all of them exemplary laborers, whose loss at this time we can illy repair.

* Rev. Dr. W. W. Phillips, a member of the Board, died since March 1.

SUMMARY OF RESULTS.

The whole number in the service of the Board, as will be seen in the tables accompanying this report, during the year closing March 1, 1865, is 503, an increase on the year preceding. There have been distributed in twenty-five States and Territories as follows, viz: Massachusetts 1, New York 36, New Jersey 22, Pennsylvania 80, Delaware 3, Maryland 17, West Virginia 9, Ohio 46, Indiana 34, Illinois 70, Michigan 6, Wisconsin 37, Minnesota 19, Iowa 61, Missouri 19, Kansas 16, Nebraska 5, Colorado 2, Kentucky 6, Tennessee 1, Oregon 3, Washington 1, California 8, Mississippi 1, Louisiana 1.

The number of churches and mission stations in whole or part supplied (so far as reported) by these brethren, is 781. Twenty-two churches are reported as organized, the number admitted to the church on profession of faith 1549, and on certificate 1092, making a total of 2441.

The entire membership in churches connected with the Board is 21,241.

The Sabbath-schools number 350, with teachers, 2938, and 20,880 scholars.

The number of baptisms reported is 2288.

Many do not report, and our details are therefore inadequate. Our exhibit, therefore, only approximates the truth. How the evil, which the Assembly of last year rebuked, is to be met, we do not know.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The amount promised to the missionaries during the year closing March 1, 1865, has been $78,926.16, an increase of twenty thousand dollars over the year preceding. Gratifying as this may seem, and for which our devout thanks are due Almighty God, it is manifestly inadequate to the magnitude of the work, and the vastness of the field. The increase of appropriations has been reached not only by the employing of more missionaries, beyond that of the year 1864, but because of the pressing need of those already in the field, occasioned by the high prices of living. There may have been cases in which no increase has been made, but it was because the applying Pres-byteries made no request for an advance. The Board were ready to any reasonable amount, and in view of the demands of the whole field, to enlarge the appropriations, knowing how well they are deserved.

THE TREASURY.

Receipts.—The entire amount, during the fiscal year ending March, 1864, received from all sources, was $102,365.12, an excess beyond the year preceding of $19,678.83.

Payments.—The amount paid, including the Presbytery of West Jersey, was $116,489.09. The balance we were happy to report to the last Assembly enabled us to pay regularly the salaries of the missionaries as they matured. It is a matter of prime necessity to pay punctually the comparatively small sums we promise the brethren on the mission field. It gives them credit in the eyes of the communities amid whom they live, and adds to the dignity of their office.

In legacies received there has been an increase of $19,449.76, and in miscellaneous and individual donations a decrease of 3533. The most pleasing fact revealed by these statistics is in the increase from the churches; on these must ever be our main reliance. The legacies of the sainted dead, and the offerings of large-hearted individuals, must, of necessity, vary in the ever changing circumstances of human life.

The interests of the Church, and the future of missions, require her people to be educated in this respect. It is the steadily increasing flow of the streamlets—the pittance of the poor, as well as the more princely offerings of the wealthy—which makes the river of God, which is full of water. It is to be feared multitudes professing Christ realize not their duty in this respect—leave to other and warmer hearts the precious privilege, at once the measure of their piety and the means of its increase. It will not be, till every church member shall awake to the fact, that his connection with the church makes him a life member of the great mission family, that the advent of the millennium may be hailed.

As the Assembly directed, and as we intimated last year, we have steadily increased the appropriations to our toiling brethren. We have stood by the recommendations of Presbyteries, presuming that on the spot, and acquainted with the claims and necessities of the field, they would recommend no more than was required, notwithstanding the great increase in the price of living. If in any case we have declined to yield to all requests, it was not for want of means, but because it would have involved unfairness to the remainder of the field. The Board would ever cherish the feeling, that the work is one—one grand field, on which nothing is to be done with partiality. The hold of some fields upon the Board is chronic—if they improve, the demand is not lessened—and we would, with all respect to Presbyteries, express the fear that proper scrutiny into these claims—the condition and future prospects of these churches—is not exercised. It is the traditionary policy of our Domestic missions, that aid is to be extended in the hope of independence, and that a fair trial be accorded for this purpose. The Assembly has, in its repeated actions, so recommended, and yet the evil continues. In other denominations a determinate period has been fixed, beyond which aid is not afforded. The field is either abandoned, or cast out to rest on its own resources. It is in no sense missionary work to permit these continued outgoings, in fields either worn out or hopelessly barren. If, as the Assembly have often directed, they cannot be united with some adjoining church, and thus afford scope for manly effort—something worthy of their labor—then it becomes a question, whether it were not well to open some new and original field, where the returns would be worthier, and the prospect of spiritual independence more decided.

Our balance, as will be perceived, is considerable, and some may marvel at the result. The Church need not be informed, that a balance proportioned to the whole income, and in view of the greatness of the work, which invites our labour, is a prime necessity. Part must be carried to meet appropriations maturing in three months, when long experience has demonstrated that light receipts are the order, and part to meet the increase of appropriations which will make themselves felt during the year coming, and which have not fallen to any extent on the payments of the year closed. Then accessions to our ranks may be expected, after the sessions of the several seminaries have closed; for then, if at all, we must occupy those important fields, in the gold-bearing regions in the new territories, where we have not a name. These involve unusual expense. Little at first can be expected from the fields themselves, and the Board must sustain almost the entire burden. But more than this, as explaining the largeness of the balance, we stood ready to commission men, during the last year, to important and distant fields, involving large outlay; but the men were not. These points of prime importance and of great promise, for this reason, we have failed to occupy. It should be the policy of our church to have its representative and to plant its standard in the newly opened territories, even in advance of any considerable population—so rapid is the development, and so quiet too, that before the atlas can be altered, to portray the new lines, the population is streaming over prairie and plain, to take possession, in the name of constitutional liberty, and lay the enduring foundations of empire. And yet we do not.

Ten years ago, for instance, the Report of the Board stated that we had no missionary in New Mexico. It is lamentably true to-day. We were earnestly requested by a high official in Arizona, himself a ruling elder in our Church before his migration, to send to that new and lovely territory a preacher of our faith, with the assurance of success. Up to this writing, no one has offered, and our Church remains unrepresented. When the men offer, the Board should have control of funds adequate. Other denominations lay aside in investments which can be easily realized for just such emergencies. And while missionary funds should circulate through the church, the prudence which the ant and the bee teach, require in the day of plenteous harvest to prepare for days of scantier returns, and yet perchance, of extraordinary demands upon the treasury. To regret our balance would be unwise and unthankful. He must have studied the map of our country with careless eyes, have feeble views of the Church's duty, and the amplitude of the work to be accomplished for Christ's crown and covenant, who will make the fact of the balance a reason of diminished effort or reduced contribution. Of the increase which a bounteous God has given to the people of the loyal States, amid the storm of war, the wonderful expansion of material prosperity, are we bound to yield such proportion as love to Christ shall dictate, in answer to the question, "How much owest thou to him?"

Since we struck the balance, and found it unusually large, the Board felt as if God in his providence permitted, on account of the high prices, an extra appropriation to all the missionaries in commission, March 1st, whom their several Presbyteries might recommend. Accordingly the Secretary, as directed, prepared and sent a circular to each Presbytery, and as rapidly as the returns are received, payments are made. Thus unexpected joy will be sent into many a mission home; and it is no more than the Church should do to her sons who preach Christ's gospel, and many of whom submit to self-denials of no unusual character. This extra appropriation of twenty-five per cent. on their existing salaries is extraordinary, and for this year only. It will be perceived that this movement, which we feel confident the Assembly and the Church will sanction and approve, will reduce our balance twenty thousand dollars; and fear need not be entertained that what remains, and is in temporary investment, to be recalled at ten days' notice, will exceed the extraordinary demands which the closing war and coming peace will press upon our anxious attention.

As we informed the General Assembly last year, we adopted measures, of which a full account was given on pages 13 and 14 of the Annual Report, and which met with your approval. Heeding the caution embodied in the Standing Committee on Missions' report, we proceeded to make two districts—one comprising Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin, and which, for convenience, was called No. 1. At the suggestion of brethren there, to whose advice and opinion we were happy to yield, Rev. Stuart Mitchell was appointed District Missionary in that field. The other, No. 2, comprising Nebraska and Kansas, was entrusted to Rev. Henry M. Giltner, who also was commended by brethren there. It soon became manifest that Mr. Mitchell's field was beyond his power to overtake, and he was directed to commence and continue in Minnesota and Wisconsin, and leave Iowa to other arrangements. Thus far experience justifies our expectations—so far the results have been pleasant.

Fields have been stimulated by their visits to greater effort to support the gospel, and in some instances have attained a healthful independence. The country has been explored; important points have been seized; men have been sent to occupy these developed fields; correspondence has brought out persons to turn their attention to these wonderful openings. Abortive efforts have heretofore been made because of inexperience; spots occupied whose growth did not justify fond expectations.—This has been prevented, and information has been collected. It will be our true policy to extend the system. Iowa is field enough to occupy a district missionary, and Missouri, when peace comes and the guerillas cease their fearful outrages, united to Arkansas, will claim another, and gradually the trans-Mississippian region will invite such explorers. The Board have not yet been convinced that in the region this side of the great river, the necessities for such action are apparent. Itinerant labour in many of these Synods in the older States, properly conducted, will result in great good. One has been appointed in the Synod of Indiana and one in the Presbytery of Western Virginia. Men of peculiar qualifications are needed for such service; men of energy, tact, knowledge of the world, willing to endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ—of fervent piety—such will realize all our hopes and lay the foundations on which others can build. The Board will cheerfully, and to the extent of that ability which the Church will bestow, appoint such men, well knowing that the results will justify the expense. To send others, and not qualified, is worse than useless, and would be a perversion of sacred funds.

CLOTHING.

Amid the great and continued labour of the sisterhood of our churches for our soldiers in the field, labours unknown in all the history of war, our missionaries have not been overlooked. Gifts of great value have been sent, and which, to preclude all mistake, we repeat what has been so often said in previous reports, form no part of the salaries promised, but are special and supplemental, the outgushing of warm believing hearts to those who carry the banner of the cross to the far removed fields of labour. Experience has proved that the giver and receiver are alike blessed, the working portion are brought into communion with the giving; and our Christian ladies learn from the earnest communications of the missionaries many a touching tale of sacrifice for Christ, hardship cheerfully endured, and which only could find the light when Christian sympathy had touched their confidence.

The whole amount sent, as far as reported, was $16,650.80, an increase over last year of $2661.72, and most gratifying under the circumstances. Other boxes have been sent, of which we have no official knowledge. It is super-criticism which finds fault with this service. And if in other churches who have not tasted this luxury, the sisterhood of believing women would only realize how much of comfort their easy efforts can accomplish, and how much the joys of a mission household are thereby enhanced, we are right sure none of our brethren would be overlooked.

We have no fear, and experience warrants the assertion, that those who enter earnestly and intelligently on this work will diminish aught of the cash contributions in their several churches. No; the inter-communion established, reveals so much of trial and self-denial for the gospel's sake, that Christian sympathies are excited, and the vastness of the work to be done becomes more apparent—the joy sent into many a home, while it recompenses all the labour incurred, reacts upon the giver. It is light which the people need, information carefully prepared and spread before them. If in anything our intelligent and accomplished ministry are deficient, it is here. They study not the magnitude of the work, nor take the gauge of its huge dimensions, and the people, without understanding, do not adequately respond. Educate the Christian mind, not to the abstraction that it is his duty to give, but show him the work he is to do for the Church, its greatness, the immeasurable importance, the interests involved, and all for Christ's sake; and then, if his religion be not a vanity, he will freely give. And as the sense of the Church has abandoned a system of paid agencies, we can only rely on the ministry to inform themselves, and then their people, of the work to be done. It was the melancholy ride by night, of Nehemiah, amid the ruins and fallen towers of Jerusalem, which filled his mind with purposes which found their accomplishment in the wonderful successes of his eventful administration. His own full heart was poured out upon a hesitating and dismayed people, and Jerusalem again rose on the sides of the north, the joy of the earth and the city of the great King. It is not even in sanctified human nature to feel, till the object is presented and measured. Our grand necessity, as a Church, is light—knowledge of the work to be done, or we shall be laggard in the race of Christian glory. The enterprises of the world succeed, because they are presented in all shapes, to excite and to move—the crown of laurels is held aloft, and they do it for a corruptible crown, but we for one incorruptible. Let the Church be taught the great facts, and then alive to the tremendous necessities, they will bring their treasures to the feet of Christ. There is no magic in systematic benevolence, which will bring water from the flinty rock. Man, even Christian man, must be informed and instructed, and he will do what he can for the service of the Redeemer, and count the privilege high which invites him in any way to send the knowledge of his truth to the destitute.

THE WORK—ITS IMPORTANCE.

The former reports have presented the greatness of our work and the emergencies that are upon us as a nation. The marvellous evolutions of Providence make manifest, as never before, this magnificence, and the privilege of laboring for Christ. There are many churches even in the older States which would perish and disappear but for the aid extended them by the Board;—and while it is true—must always be true, that the regions beyond the new states and territories, which stretch away toward the setting sun, are eminently and specially missionary ground, yet it must be remembered, that in New York and Pennsylvania, there are in the swelling populations in these States, fields of utmost importance, from which we cannot turn aside. Indeed the culture of these indirectly react upon the West. From thence proceed the men—the families who, pressed by necessity, or lured by the spirit of enterprise, start in the path of the emigrant—many a field, which we now successfully cultivate in the West—in some virgin territory, or State, fresh budding into sovereignty, would have been beyond our reach, had not the exploring missionary found some elder and his household from Pennsylvania or Ohio ready to welcome him. The American Home Missionary Society found here the secret of its success. The emigrant from New England, or Western New York, with his Puritan descent and partialities for the church of his forefathers, in his restless enterprise has gone before their missionaries and prepared a path in the desert. It is therefore a mistaken view, which decries efforts at the East and in the older States, with the vague idea that the West is all.

Never should we lose sight of the fact that the field is one, as the Church is one—Christ is not divided. It is the Church's life pervading the whole territory and finding its joyful exercises wherever there are souls to be saved. The Board of Missions is the almoner of the Church, and knows no man after the flesh. With funds entrusted, her only aim is to distribute and neglect none in the daily distribution—to plant the cross in the most inviting fields, and kindle centres of radiance from which light is to stream. Could we cover the whole land with churches—had we the means and the men, we should only have fulfilled the mission assigned us, and done our duty.

How immensely important is it, that the occurring desolations be supplied. The salvation of millions, now enshrouded in ignorance, and the future welfare of the Church and of the land imperatively demand action. Without a knowledge of the Saviour, men cannot be saved from everlasting ruin, and the underlying of the religious element is not only indispensable to our national prosperity, but even to the continuance of those republican institutions which has made us the joy of wondering peoples. It is the gospel and the living truth, which secures our blessings, individual, social, national. The security of our persons—the untouched sanctity of our homes—the safety of our property—our political and religious freedom—all hang here, and find their life in the gospel, earnestly preached and truly believed. Yet great as are all temporal mercies—they are nothing, and less than nothing, when compared with the spiritual evils from which the truth delivers the souls of men, and the unutterable weight of glory which it ensures.

What we do in an age like this, and in a land like ours, we must do quickly—we live at a time when events crowd upon us with breathless rapidity. The promises and the prophecies are in travail, and the time of fulfilment are at hand. To send forth teachers of God's word into new and opening fields before infidelity and superstition have planted their deadly seeds, is beyond all importance. The loss of a few months precludes the possibility of successful effort for years—the fretting leprosy of error has seized the community, and the disease descends from generation to generation.

Appeals reach us from every quarter—come over and help us!—the destitution increases as our country expands and population swells in its rising tide—our national area has more than trebled since our nation was born; reaching from the British possessions north to the Rio Grande south—from ocean to ocean. Embracing three millions five hundred thousand square miles. The increase of population has no precedent in the history of nations. At the commencement of the next century, thirty-five years hence, we shall have one hundred millions. It is not extravagant to say, that the present United States can sustain six hundred millions. What a country, and what a field! What magnificent openings for Christian devotion and Christian labors! Millions speaking one language, and more or less influenced by Christian truth! No long toil to acquire language or master the niceties of dialect, changing with every province into which you enter—no prejudice of hoary caste, the work of ages—no interested and cunning priesthood, zealous for their sect and anxious for their bread—no inveterate heathen notions to remove—no persecution to vex our converts. The broad shield of the government protects all, and interferes with none. For while we do not proselyte, we seek the conversion of men. There is no field on earth like this. True, there is no romance around it—no parting of weeping friends—no sacrifice, which shed a halo around the missionary to the far off heathen. But it is the same work, and we challenge of right, the sympathies of the Church for the men who toil on prairie and traverse with the emigrant train, the plains of the distant West, equally with the men who penetrate an Indian jungle, or faint beneath the cocoa shade of the tropics. The field is the world. We owe it to our Master, to heed his command. But oh how important, even to this end, is the conversion of this land to Christ. And then fronting from these two shores, the world, can we speak impressively to the nations, and by means of a sanctified commerce, send forth the influences which, under God, have made us what we are.

We remember in this connection, there are hundreds of thousands who do not speak our language. Multitudes of immigrants, who, by reason of their religious prejudices, are almost unapproachable as the heathen. This foreign population increases day by day. It is a political anomaly, that, in the face of this tremendous civil war—in spite of the efforts of the venal press of Europe, and especially of England, the tide rolls fuller and deeper, the more it is resisted and opposed. Of these, multitudes are infidels, and come with political and social heresies, dangerous to our institutions. Thousands are the slaves of Roman superstition, ready to do the bidding of their priests. But we have no fear, if the Church will do her duty. God has some manifest purpose in all this. They are cast upon our shores, to challenge our sympathies, and call forth our efforts. The character of our institutions, and the influences which are ever at work, will cause the difference of language to disappear. The coming generation will speak our language, and read our Bible. The light poured from the evangelical churches will counteract the strenuous efforts of the priesthood. The Board has not neglected these. And though our success, for obvious reasons, is not so cheering as we hoped, yet we trust that it is the day of preparation—the seed-time and the harvest hereafter. Missionaries have been employed among the foreign population. Two are labouring among the French-speaking Belgians, twenty-two among the Germans. The difficulty lies in obtaining suitable men for these operations. An intimate knowledge, such as our office affords, makes manifest that this difficulty is of no mean character. Gladly would our Church reach the adult immigrants of foreign tongue, could the men be furnished for the service.

The progress of the war opens up another and new class, who demand our sympathies—the coloured population, once enslaved, now in God's providence free. Maryland, Tennessee, Missouri, Louisiana, Arkansas, and West Virginia, have pronounced the decree of emancipation, and raised these slaves to all the dignity of freemen. No man can read God's providences in the bloody pages of this rebellion, and not know that the doom of slavery is fixed throughout the continent. In the States yet unreconciled to the Union, but traversed by our victorious armies, the compelling influence of war has released hundreds of thousands more. What is our duty to these people, so easy to be reached, and ready to receive the gospel at the hands of those whom they hail as their deliverers? What part has this Board with these people? The Assembly, last year, erected two Committees to overlook the urgent interests of these emancipated slaves. The results of their doings will appear from their reports. It is respectfully submitted, that, inasmuch as the condition of the emancipated African is anomalous and extraordinary, whether missions to the destitute of any kind should be removed from the care of this Board. Formerly, we were debtors both to the bond and the free, the master and his slave; and now that the marvellous providence of God has overruled the war of rebellion, to loose the chains, and bid the oppressed go free, will not these people soon find their status the same with the white emigrants, in distant and outlying fields? and, if so, they are properly the object of this Board's care. We have been requested to send missionaries, and we did so, to a band of freedmen in Kansas; and if God will raise up suitable men, and give us the means, gladly will we meet the outstretched arms of Ethiopia. The burdens and cares of this office are all sufficient, and we covet no more, except as a matter of loyalty to Christ. But now, in their transition state, ere things assume a fixed and permanent shape, we represent these facts to the General Assembly, as, for the honour of Christ, we are bound to do. Then, again, the multiplication of committees, and the erection of machinery, complicates our movements, as a church. It brings too many objects before our people, and confuses them. Our Methodist brethren raise and disburse $600,000 by one organization, acting through two committees. They make one grand annual collection for missions, with astonishing results; and from their rooms in New York reach the world. This may be one extreme. We are falling into the opposite. It is with profound respect, and only in view of the glory of God, and the most efficient and economical agency for doing good, that we offer these suggestions, and trust that the Assembly, in the wisdom which God bestows, will examine the whole matter, not simply in its present and extraordinary position; but as it will likely find shape after the surges of war have been allayed, and peace shall open a highway for our God. Great as the burden will be, we are willing to assume and reach, as we can, upwards of three millions of these men. The Church will see that this Board are the guardians of this class, as well as of all others who are destitute; and as every hour the progress of our armies makes manifest the settlement of our national trials, the difficulty will lessen, and the way be prepared to bear the gospel to these children of sorrow, but of wonderful religious susceptibility.

The great law given by our Redeemer to his Church, since his advent, is that of EXPANSION. His is a covenant right to the whole world, and to his own, whom he will gather out of every people, and kindred, and nation, and present them perfect before his Father in that day. The glory of the Church is to work for Christ. This is her high mission. To this Board the Home field in this great service has been assigned. We began in the rude efforts of our earliest ecclesiastical organizations in 1705. We have been one hundred and sixty years in this country. Much we have been permitted to do, but how much yet undone! What fields unbroken—what territories are unvisited! Let us glance rapidly at the map as it unfolds before us.

The New England States, with an area of 66,052 square miles, and the most densely peopled of any of the divisions of our country, have, amid many errors, the gospel preached by godly men, and a large substratum of truth, as we hold it, lying beneath the vague speculations which are so rife. They have their domestic missionary societies, and show commendable diligence in upholding churches, weakened by the restless emigration to the West. But we have among them our presbyteries of Londonderry and Connecticut—our churches along the line of the Merrimac, have a long and interesting history, and have maintained a vigorous existence, amid the influences of other organizations. We have two churches in Boston, one vigorous and self-sustaining; the other receives aid.

The Middle States have an area of 103,666 square miles, and a population at the last census of 8,265,193.

New York, first in order and first in its peerless importance, has missionary fields which we may occupy along the Hudson, and in her northern and south-western borders,—the latter, as yet, thinly settled. The other branch of the Presbyterian Church covers the fairest, and perhaps the wealthiest portions of this great State; and yet in parts of the State whole counties are covered by a single presbytery, with portions never yet explored, and without any organized church of our faith. The great city, now containing a population of one million and a quarter, is there—a field full of treasure, unexplored, and affording for earnest men encouragement to labour, of great inducement. We have in the whole State thirty-one missionaries.

The eastern and southern portions of New Jersey, washed by the Atlantic and Delaware Bay, are being rapidly developed by her numerous railroads, and increasing rapidly in an enterprising population. Lying between two great cities, with markets unsurpassed on the continent, the increase of her material wealth can hardly be measured. Much of the labour must, of necessity, be itinerant, or churches and stations be grouped together under one brother. The upper portions of the State present fields of promise, and we can divide with our New-school brethren the honors of overtaking their destitutions. We have in New Jersey twenty-two missionaries.

Pennsylvania leads all other States in the number of her missionaries, having in all eighty. The amazing wealth, mineral, coal, and oil, so wonderfully developed of late, promises to make her always second on the roll of associated commonwealths. There are spots yet to be explored—fields yet to be occupied. The influx of foreigners into the mining regions will be evil, and only evil, if not met by the subduing influences of the gospel. In the mountain regions, along her romantic streams, fields of labour are filling up with a population which will task our efforts to overtake. There may be demands made upon the Board for fields of chronic weakness; and there may be stations which could profitably be united under one brother: and there may be aid extended where the actual ability of the district, if brought out, would render needless. Our brethren in the old hive of Presbyterianism will feel, we trust, the duty and privilege of examining all facts closely, that the power of the Board may be augmented, to extend and strengthen our missions to those distant States and territories where many a noble Pennsylvania elder has gone, with his family, to lay the foundation of church and empire.

Delaware has, of late, opened as a field of more promise. We have there three missionaries. There is a prospect of immigration to that peninsula, of earnest and enterprising men, who will carry new views and greater enterprise thither.

Maryland, redeemed from slavery, has seventeen missionaries. Though she has painfully felt the oscillations caused by the rebellion, she is rapidly assuming the calm composure which is the prerogative of free States—fields are opening—discord is passing away—dividing lines are being obliterated—a new population has filled up the State, and the prospects of usefulness are very fair. Our brethren of the Baltimore Presbytery are preparing, with the aid and advice of the Board, to explore the territory from tide water to the Alleghenies, to measure and take the gauge of its wants, and make such preparations as the providence of God will permit, to cover the State with churches, and send the living gospel to the people.

Here, then, in the older States, and where our Church first was planted, are vast districts unoccupied. And, though we cannot but feel the fervency and eloquence of the appeals which come to us across the mountains and the Great River, we cannot neglect that portion from which the Church has so largely drawn, and now so largely draws, her men and means for her support and extension.

The Western States cover 346,700 square miles, three times exceeding the Middle States, and an empire in themselves. Ohio, from her first peopling and her earliest settlement, has been an object of great solicitude to all denominations; but, with her dense and ever-increasing population, her enterprise, her enlarged wealth, yet claims large aid, and employs forty-six missionaries. The zeal and earnestness of her presbyteries are finding new openings for mission labour. Indiana and Illinois, advancing so rapidly in power and political position, are missionary fields. North-eastern and Northern Indiana present openings of great promise. All southern Illinois, advancing since the commencement of the war in all the elements of material prosperity, presents as fair a field as any in the land for missionary labour; yet whole counties are without a minister, and without a church. This is true, to a considerable extent, of central and north Illinois. The wondrous fertility of this State will advance her among the sisterhood of western commonwealths. The railroad communications, in regular network, the whole intelligent internal improvements, all speak hopefully of its future. It is said, on high authority, that Illinois can sustain a population of fifteen millions, and then pour her cereals into the lap of hungry nations. Indiana has thirty-four, and Illinois seventy missionaries, a larger number than in any other state, except the Keystone.

Michigan, with the exception of a strip along the northern line of Indiana and above the head of Lake Erie, and north as far as the foot of Lake Huron, is to our Church a land unknown. A mixed multitude have gathered there from all parts of the world—numerous and contending sects are there—infidelity and heresies, and false doctrine and ignorance are there. How slow, how difficult, how trying, and how uncertain the efforts of our missionaries. We have in the state only six brethren, toiling as they can, with praiseworthy diligence and much success.

As we travel north and west, we find three large and important States—Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Iowa, embracing an area greater than all New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Maryland. In the last census decade, Wisconsin more than doubled its population; Minnesota and Iowa have advanced with strides almost as rapid. Some of our most successful missions are in these States. Our earnest, faithful, and laborious brethren there, have made full proof of their ministry. There in the great centre of the continent—where the great rivers of the land head, flowing east through the lakes, north to Hudson's Bay, and south in magnificent volume to the Gulf of Florida; with climate of unusual salubrity, soil unrivalled amid the fertile soils of our land, producing cereals in almost fabulous amount, and destined in God's providence to maintain an amazing population and yet send forth their stores of wheat to an expecting world. This is a field worthy of Christian ambition, and all we have done, therefore, have produced a blessed recompense of reward. We have in Wisconsin thirty-seven missionaries, and in Minnesota nineteen, and in Iowa sixty-one. Some of the churches are grand successes, and many of them bid fair to attain ere long, their spiritual independence.

Then beyond is Kansas, to whom we have sent sixteen brethren. The blood baptism which they received in their early history, has given them a manliness above their fellows. It made an earnest people, and gave them vigor beyond others. The future is bright and the success encouraging. The Westminster Church in Leavenworth no longer receives aid, and supports its worthy pastor with commendable liberality. We augur for some of the others the same future. Nebraska adjoining Kansas, and familiar in the politics of a dozen years past, has five missionaries. Her progress has not been as rapid as her neighbors. It is the highway of the caravan marching beyond to Salt Lake and the plains and auriferous regions, this side of the Rocky Mountains, and yet we doubt not time will develop this interesting Territory and show forth its hidden greatness.

Then as we proceed, we find the great regions of gold, Colorado, where we have two brethren, laboring with earnest zeal, one at Denver City, already self-sustaining. It is sad to think, that only two young brethren are in all that important territory, not enough to form a Presbytery; we are assured that there are fields which will realize the richest harvest, could we send forth laborers to fill their bosom with the sheaves. Then Idaho, Dacotah, Montana, Utah full of abominations, Nevada, now a star in the national galaxy, Arizona and New Mexico come next, and we mournfully report that we have not a minister of our faith in all that region. And yet the gold is there, in almost fabulous amounts, and the people rush there in ever-swelling tide, and empire is founding there. We are assured, that if the right men could be found, we could occupy fields which very soon would sustain their pastors. Most certain it is, that our true policy is to send a few brethren, to represent our church and gather the scattered sheep of our fold, whom interest or enterprise have sent to these distant fields.

We cross the Rocky Mountains and descend to the Pacific coast, and find there two important States, California and Oregon, and the Territory of Washington. For that portion we have felt the deepest solicitude; and though it may be said, but unjustly, that we have been slow to occupy, we have sent men as rapidly as they offered. In Oregon we have three, in California eight, and in Washington Territory two. Three brothers of one family from Princeton, have been commissioned to that coast. One felt it his duty, with the consent of the Board, to remain in California, and the other two, with their venerable father, an office-bearer in our Church, have chosen Oregon as their future home. The Presbytery of Puget Sound, broken up by the lamentable death of brother Evans, mentioned in our last report, has not yet obtained its constitutional quorum. Correspondence has been initiated with a brother, with a view of his entering that field. We know the field is great, and will be increasingly great. The amazing elements of greatness are there. The commerce by steamships, opening under the fostering care of the General Government, with China and the Orient, will swell its greatness, and the importance of its occupancy cannot be exaggerated. Men of the right stamp have not offered, and we cannot in these distant and expensive missions, make mistakes. We feel we have a right to complain, that our brethren on that coast, who send up loud complaints of their need, have not, though often requested, informed us in advance, of the points and the character of the fields for missionary labor. And hence, when brethren offered—and we dare not refuse to send the willing—we have been compelled to cast them loose, in the city of the Golden Gate, to find fields of labor as they could. If the Assembly would direct the Presbyteries there to furnish the Board accurate information on these points, we could cooperate with them more intelligently; and no greater pleasure could be afforded us, than to send true and earnest men to plant churches on those glorious shores.

In justice to the Board and its officers, it should be said, that strenuous efforts have been made to find suitable men for that and other fields. Our most efficient district missionary, Mr. S. Mitchell, was directed to leave his field and visit the different Seminaries—spread the necessities of the Board before the students, and seek men for this work. We know that he has been indefatigable in his correspondence for this purpose. The Secretary not only has corresponded extensively with brethren, with reference to the Pacific coast, but has visited students, and sought to find select men, in whom confidence might repose for this work; but so far these efforts have not found their reward. And none better than the officers of the Board understand the absolute lack of men for these high and important services.

In the border States, as they are commonly called, the condition of the mission effort is gloomy. Swept by guerilla warfare, torn by political agitations, our churches have been weakened, and in some cases destroyed. In Missouri we have nineteen missionaries; before the rebellion we had forty-two. Some, now receiving aid, are labouring in churches once self-sustaining; but now, weakened and torn by division, fall back upon us, to be saved from extinction. What the future will be, it is not for us to say; nor how soon the surges of strife will abate, and men can labour there without peril and disheartening toil. Some of our best men have left in disgust. But who doubts the future of emancipated Missouri? The influx of a new population will send her bounding onward. What part our Church shall take we cannot tell, for the equivocal position of many of our ministers have told fatally, we fear, upon the future.

Only the Presbytery of Transylvania, in the Synod of Kentucky, coöperated with the Board; and though we have ventured to send a few brethren, at their own earnest request, into some other parts of that State, the remaining Presbyteries of that Synod, since the autumn of 1861, have stood aloof, and managed their own missions and disbursed their own collections.

Our effort in the Second Church, Nashville, was a grand success. The Assembly at Peoria directed the Board to appropriate one thousand dollars there, and seldom has money been better expended. Early in the year the esteemed brother in charge there, informed us that his church could sustain him without our aid, and that already they had commenced returning, by liberal contributions, the amount we had given in the day of their great need.

In the new State of West Virginia, we have nine missionaries. They have proved themselves vigorous and successful, amid much to discourage. The sweepings of war, and, until lately, hostile raids, disturbed their peace. But the revolution has spent itself, and order and quiet are rapidly succeeding, from the irresistible changes which the triumph of the national armies are accomplishing. A new and better population are coming in, and the developments of wealth, in the hands of men freed from the curse of slavery, will place that new State in a high position, and realize all the hopes of its patriotic founders.

The condition of the South as a mission field, has not much changed since our last report, except that the triumphant march of our armies has extinguished active rebellion in large portions thereof, and confined it to a narrow area. The desolations are fearful, and cannot be exaggerated—the moral ruin greater than the physical and material. The former members of our Church, in great part, as far as we know, have so far sympathized with rebellion, as to be unavailing for purposes of reconstruction. Ministers have sunk the preacher into the soldier, and battle in the ranks of secession. Ruling elders have yielded to the pressure, or laboured to create it. We doubt not there is a remnant untainted, who will show themselves, as order and civil government are reëstablished. The work of reconstruction will be difficult—to win back the erring and deluded will task our piety and wisdom. We are as yet greatly in the dark; speculation is vain. To force the gospel on an unwilling people is out of the question. To place our loyal ministers in places where their prayer for the government, and its success over armed treason, drives their hearers from their church, is to subject them to an outrage which the honour of Christ requires from none of his servants. What is to be done? We will wait. A brother has been placed at Alexandria, Virginia, now attached to the Presbytery of the Potomac. We have another in New Orleans, working amid the fallen walls of their Jerusalem. We have one at Vicksburg, doing what service he can consistently with his engagements with the government. We are sending a young brother to itinerate in the bounds of the Presbytery of Knoxville. As men offered and places opened, we have acted. To occupy salient points, and leave the gospel to radiate, is all we can expect, perhaps, for years to come. We arranged to send two esteemed brethren, not unacquainted with the South in former days, to New Orleans and its surroundings, to explore and ascertain as to facts, to enable us to act intelligently. But at this writing the proposition is held in abeyance. We, as a Board, have done all that we could, and must now devoutly wait the evolutions of Divine Providence.

Ministers who have kept their faith, and who are with the remnants of their flocks, South, we will cheerfully aid in their mournful work of rebuilding the Church. The people of God, north, must be patient. The waves yet heave and toss unquiet on the ocean, when the storm has spent its fury. The sweepings of this gigantic rebellion have strewn the land with ruins, which it will require years to remove. The purposes of God, in the past four years of strife and bloodshed, are not all made manifest as yet. There will be a struggle (may it be Christian) with other denominations, for the possession of a field which we once claimed as our own, and to retain which we made such fruitless sacrifices.

It is not unlikely that the close of the war will witness a deflection of the tide of emigration, whose normal course has hitherto been west and northwest. These settlers will have their preferences as to church organizations, or will be indifferent, and we shall need our chosen men. Why may not the Church expect, yea, require men of experience and tried skill, now living in narrow fields, to enter on these wide and opening doors of missionary labour? Where are the men—the men anointed of God—for this service?

We have thus, in practical and business-like manner, surveyed the field which opens its magnificent dimensions before our sympathies. Never has the Church of God been presented with such privileges—the work of reclaiming a continent for Christ. The crisis of fast-fulfilling prophecies, the marvellous providences of an all-wise God, the very character of the war and its results, present a work to sanctified patriotism, which no other people ever saw. Will our Church be true? Will she maintain her traditionary policy as a missionary church, and keep her place in the forefront of that army to whom Christ has committed the conquest of the land? And this leads us to a matter of practical and momentous importance.

THE DEMAND FOR MISSIONARIES.

The requisitions of the past year have not been met. New fields could have been entered, new territories secured, and our Church been represented on the advance of that great tide of population which rolls across the continent. We have, as before remarked, met, to the extent of our ability, these demands for missionaries. But we cannot furnish all who are needed, nor can we give the full tale of brick without straw. The churches must not be unreasonable, nor feel surprise, that fields of promise, which have been presented to our notice, have not been entered. The Board cannot increase the number of ministers, nor say to this man go, and he goeth. The demand is already ahead of the supply, and if this be in the green tree, what will it be in the dry? If our survey, as presented, be impressive, and opening fields, West, and soon South, loom up before our startled gaze, where are the men? Whom shall we send, and who will go for us? Unless the Lord of the harvest furnish the labourers, the harvest, as far as our Church is concerned, will be ungathered—golden opportunities will be lost, and the charities of an awakened Church will be withheld. As far as we can ascertain, the four Theological Seminaries in our Church have three hundred and thirty students, all told. Now, one-third of these, or one hundred and ten, are available for the service. The number who study privately is too small to enter into the calculation, or disturb the result. Then, the necessary allowance, to fill vacancies occasioned by the removal of ministers, in the course of Divine Providence, death, or other disability, will so far diminish the men to occupy these glorious fields, where a man of spirit and earnestness may leave his impress on a State. We have not the men—there are men who hover round vacancies, and impress the people of God with the idea that the number of unemployed ministers is very great. But men, glowing with missionary zeal, we have not, nor are likely to have, unless the Spirit be outpoured from on High. Great and precious revivals of religion can only remedy this great and serious evil. Earthly sacrifices are not counted by earnest hearts, who have received the baptism; men of whom our fathers have told us, counted it an honour to suffer for Christ—men who laid the foundations of our Church in the early history of our country. We confess to some alarm about the future. The silver and the gold can more easily be had than the men. The Church herself is deficient in missionary zeal—her views are not intelligent. The grandeur of the work is not considered. Our people need instruction—our sons and our daughters must be trained. The call of our country has sent to the field, to meet its danger, and brave death itself, the very flower of our youth—the armies have been filled by the multitudes who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the Lord! And shall it be asked of the Church, then, Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben, there were great searchings of heart. Then a new spirit must be given us—a new missionary impulse be afforded, or we shall be laggard in the march of glory, and yield to others those blessed openings, which so constantly greet us, and so imperatively ask for men to come and occupy.

The ministry must instruct the people—give them facts—sanctified and intelligent sympathy will work wonders. We dare not, we must not take too much for granted. How shall they believe, except they be taught? The success, the unprecedented success of the Christian Commission, lay in the wisdom which gives the people facts, fresh and glowing. Provision for men's physical wants entered largely into their plan; but spiritual needs were as prominently presented. The history of war reveals nothing like it. The readiness of the people at home to labor for, and give to our patriot army in the field, was marvellous. The Commission and its agents held up the facts, eloquent facts, and the hearts of the people were moved as by a mighty wind. Let us go and do likewise. Let us seek for labourers for the harvest, which waves its golden beauty over our land. Ah! the glory of a Church is its missionary character, which sends forth its sons to occupy, and hold in the name of her Redeemer.

CONCLUSION.

The past year has been one of mercy. We met each maturing claim promptly. We were able to increase the allowance of our missionaries—in many cases largely. We close with a balance relatively large; but surely it is small enough in view of the work before us, if, as we hope, this cruel war shall cease, and armed rebellion go down before the victorious armies of the Union. In the latter part of the missionary year many pleasant revivals were reported, and the hearts of our brethren made glad in the increase given to their toil. Almost all speak encouragingly. The tumult of war, blessed be God, has not prevented blessings on their ministry—souls have been converted—our very camps have seen Pentecostal seasons, and the churches at home have been strengthened by the work among the soldiers. Days of gladness are upon us. God's Spirit and providence seem to say, Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. For the seed shall be prosperous—the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all things.

And who can measure and get the gauge of the results of this missionary year? Its secret and hidden influences man cannot know. The conversion of one soul is a miracle of mercy. Multiply by the whole number engaged in missionary operations, and human calculation cannot overtake the mighty sum. And need we be discouraged? Shall we recall the brethren from their fields, or leave the regions which open on every side to desolation—the blight of infidelity or soul-destroying error? God forbid. We tread but in Christ's steps, when we send forth men of God. Go ye into all the world. We but obey his parting command, as he stood on Olivet, and his humanity was about to be dissolved in its own radiancy. The hour of trial is not yet passed—the close of the war, we devoutly trust, is at hand. The abomination of desolation is well-nigh swept from the precincts of the temple; and how much of the energy, unity, and devotion of our people, may have depended on these agencies, who can tell! Many a mission church has yielded the choicest of its treasures for the defence of our endangered liberties. Elders and church members have fought and won the battles. Many are on the roll of the dead. In the camp, they are its salt, and save the armies from utter corruption. The days of purification are upon us. What God will do, we know not now, but shall know hereafter. We trust, that He will give us a continent to conquer in his name, and grace to accomplish the glorious task. The sixty millions who will occupy this land twenty years from now, will, if sanctified by the gospel, speak in tones of commanding eloquence to the nations East and West of us, the value of that gospel, which has saved and exalted a nation like this.

What then? If thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall enlargement and deliverance arise from another place; and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? It is a solemn honor to live now—in the crisis of the world's history. The promises are travailing; but the corresponding responsibility is great. God forbid that our beloved Church should hesitate and falter now. The very life of the Church is involved in this. There is that scattereth and yet increaseth. And then the Scripture converse—there is that withholdeth more than is meet, and tendeth to poverty. This is no time for discouragement. The Lord of Hosts will be with us, casting down imaginations and lofty barriers—opening new paths and pointing to new fields of conquest. The wheels of his chariot are shaking the nations—every effort and sacrifice in this cause hasten the day when the land shall be His and, glory shall dwell in our land.

The annual Statistical Tables of men commissioned, and work performed, are laid, with this Report, before the reverend and venerable Assembly for inspection, and all papers which reveal the state of the Treasury.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires during the meeting of the Assembly, and you are respectfully requested to take action accordingly.

There are two vacancies in the class of 1865, one caused by the decease of Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D., and the other occasioned by the removal into another Church of Rev. J. J. Porter. Also one vacancy in the class of 1868, caused by the withdrawal of Mr. W. D. Bell.

By order of the Board of Missions.

THOMAS L. JANEWAY,

Corresponding Secretary.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR MISSIONARY AID.

Applicants for missionaries and missionary aid, are respectfully and earnestly requested to pay particular attention to the following rules and regulations of the Board:

RULE 1. Regular form in which applications are to come up to the Board as often as made.

Applications to the Board for Missionary appointments and pecuniary aid, and also for the re-appointment of Missionaries should always be made in writing by the Ruling Elders of the church, through the Presbytery or the Corresponding Executive Committee of the Presbytery to which the church applying for assistance belongs—accompanied with a recommendation from said Presbytery or Committee, of the Missionary to be appointed, and a specification of the amount of aid indispensably necessary.

If there be no Corresponding Executive Committee in the Presbytery, the application must be fully sanctioned by two neighboring ministers, connected with the Presbytery to which the church belongs.

RULE 2. Of the Board in relation to renewing, dating, and ante-dating Commissions. Passed, March 10th, 1851.

In consequence of the constantly repeated applications of Presbyteries to ante-date commissions, some for three, others for six, and some even for twelve months, and without any apparent reason, other than want of attention and prompt action on the part of Presbyteries, and Committees of Presbyteries on Missions, thereby embarrassing the business of the Board, and depriving the Board of an accurate knowledge of the expenses of our missions, for which provision must be made weekly, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Presbyteries and Committees of Presbyteries on Missions be respectfully requested to have commissions of their missionaries renewed before the expiration of their term of service, if practicable to do so; and in all cases to state definitely the time when they wish the Commission to be dated.

Resolved, 2. That from and after the 1st day of May, 1851, the Board will ante-date no commission beyond two months from the time of the reception of the application at the Mission Rooms.

3. Rules of the Board in relation to the careful examination of applicants:—to information required of Presbyteries by the Board to assist it in its action:—and to churches able to support the gospel for themselves.

“On motion,

1. Resolved, That the Committee of the Board be directed to examine carefully into the propriety and justice of every application for new commissions, or for renewal of old ones; and whenever the sums applied for may be reduced, that the reduction may be made.

2. Resolved, That the Presbyteries be requested to state the amount raised by the churches or congregations forming missionary fields, in support of their pastors or missionaries, when they apply for commissions from the Board for them, in order to enable the Board to act more intelligently on the applications.

3. Resolved, That before a Presbytery entertain the application of any organized church or missionary field, it be requested to inquire whether said church or field has any reasonable prospect of becoming self-sustaining; and whether said church or field may not properly and profitably be united with some contigious church or churches, and the labour of a missionary, and the expense of his support, be saved to the Board, agreeably to the recommendation of the General Assembly.

4. Resolved, That all churches which have been long upon the Board, and are able to support the gospel of themselves, have their appropriations reduced; and that they be discontinued by the Board as soon as possible, in order that the Missionary funds of the Church may be husbanded, and more liberally and extensively applied to fields that are purely missionary, and in which the Church may expand and grow.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PRESBYTERIES AND CHURCHES APPLYING FOR AID.

It has always been regarded as the duty of churches applying for aid, to inform the Board, through the Presbyteries by which their applications are recommended, of the amount of salary they promise to pay their pastors, or stated supplies, in order that the Presbyteries and the Board may be able the better to judge whether the amount of aid asked for is reasonable and necessary. From some cause or other, this salutary custom has gradually fallen into disuse, at least so far as the Board is informed, and the information so obviously necessary is very generally withheld. In order to obtain this needed information in future, the Board adopted unanimously the following resolution, viz.

“Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Board be, and they hereby are instructed to defer acting upon applications for missionary aid until they ascertain, if practicable, what amount of salary the churches applying for assistance from the Board have promised, or are willing to promise to their ministers.”

In view of this resolution of the Board, we respectfully request all the churches desiring aid, to inform their respective Presbyteries of the amount of salary they have promised, or are willing to promise their ministers; and we also respectfully request all the Presbyteries, and Presbyterial Committees on Missions, to furnish this information to the Executive Committee of the Board when applications for aid are recommended. This will prevent delay and trouble, as the Executive Committee, under the instruction of the Board, will of course defer acting upon all applications until they obtain, if practicable, the information required.

This rule is so obviously proper, and indeed indispensable to the judicious disbursement of the Missionary Fund of the Church, that we confidently trust it will be cheerfully complied with by all the parties interested.

CLOTHING.

Boxes of Clothing for Missionaries.—For the information of those who may wish to furnish clothing, or other articles, for the comfort of our missionaries and their families, we publish the following:

Boxes of clothing when sent directly to the office of the Board, without any particular designation, will be forwarded to such missionaries as are understood to be the most needy; and the missionary to whom a box from any congregation or association is sent, will be requested to write to the donors, acknowledging the receipt.

We ask particular attention to the following directions for forwarding boxes.

1. In every box that is sent, put a list of all the articles, with their estimated value; put on the same paper the name of the individual, congregation, or association, from whom the box comes; also the post-office address of the person to whom a letter of acknowledgment is to be sent. Let this paper be put in the box, where it will be readily seen on the box being opened. A letter should also be sent to the office of the Board, giving information of the time when the box was sent, and by what conveyance, to whom sent, the valuation, and any other things connected with the donation which it may be desirable should be known at the office.

Clothing Distributed Gratuitously.—Boxes of clothing form no part of a missionary's regular appropriation. The Board, therefore, need the same amount of funds to meet their engagements, as if no boxes were forwarded. It is very important this should not be overlooked. These boxes are of great value to many of the missionaries, and they need all that is sent to them; but we should be careful not to suffer these acts of kindness to lessen our pecuniary donations to the cause, which cannot admit of this without serious loss. Thus far there has been no pecuniary loss, but rather a gain, by the interest which has been excited in the preparation of these boxes. We fondly hope it will continue to be so, and that the interest in Domestic Missions will continue to increase until our whole land is supplied with gospel privileges.

Contents of Boxes.—As to what is to be put into these boxes, we are willing to leave the matter to the judgment of our good ladies, who so well know what is wanted in a family. Scarcely any article in common use will come amiss. Knives and forks, spoons, scissors, thread, yarn, silk, needles, pins, tape, buttons, garden seeds, etc., etc., in addition to articles of substantial wearing apparel will be thankfully received. Flannel, muslins, calicoes, etc., not made up, are very acceptable.

PRINCIPLES UPON WHICH THE WORK OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS IS CONDUCTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Resolved, That the Assembly would re-affirm all the principles upon which it has heretofore carried on its Domestic Missions—principles which have been exhibited in a review of all the published minutes, acts, and doings of the Church in her highest judicatories, from the beginning, and which are drawn up and set forth in order, in the Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, May, 1852.

Resolved, That the great work undertaken for so long a time by the Assembly, is the expansion and full establishment of the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by his own Spirit and power, over all our vast country. And it is purely a missionary work—missionary in this respect, that ministers are sent out by the Assembly, and means furnished for their support, in whole or in part, while they are preaching the gospel, and gathering and establishing churches. So soon as individual churches, or groups of churches are established, and are able to support all the Institutions of the gospel for themselves, they are no longer missionary in character, but immediately cease their connection with the Board, and fall into line with the great body of self-sustaining and contributing churches, and go to add to the solid material and power of the Presbyterian Church. Now the principles upon which the General Assembly conducts its Domestic Missionary work are these: 1st. It is, in the sense defined, a missionary work. 2d. The funds contributed for it are missionary funds. 3d. The men employed in preaching the gospel are, in their fields, missionary men. 4th. All the churches and fields aided and supplied, are missionary churches and fields. 5th. The funds supplied are funds for temporary assistance, and not for entire nor permanent support. The people aided are to help themselves, be it ever so little, from the beginning, and are to go on to independence. 6th. The grand end and aim of the Assembly is to establish self-sustaining churches and fields, as fast and far as possible, and so to increase the solid material and power of the Church, and accumulate strength to go forward expanding.

7th. Ministers and means are to be distributed according to the relative importance and promise of different fields and in view of the necessities of the whole field, that there may be equality and no partiality. 8th. The Assembly conducts this work through a Committee or Board, responsible to itself alone, under its advice and control; and which Board is required to exercise its sound discretion and judgment in deciding upon, and in conducting the business entrusted to it. 9th. No debt to be incurred in carrying forward the missionary work. The Assembly always acted upon this just and only safe principle, and a principle which has always been adhered to by our Church: and in the Assembly of 1803, the following resolution was passed: "That there ought to be no anticipation of the funds in future; or, in other words, that appropriations ought not to be made in any year beyond the amount which the funds arising in that year will be sufficient to satisfy." Page 208. 10th. And finally, agents for visiting the churches, and collecting funds for the work, may be employed by the Board."

Resolved, That the Board be directed to go forward and conduct the work entrusted to its care on these principles, as heretofore, and that they be commended to the attention and observance of all Presbyteries and churches in their applications for aid; and that the Board be also instructed to pay, as heretofore, due regard to the recommendations of Presbyteries. That all pastors and stated supplies be requested to take pains to circulate the Report, when published, and diffuse more information on the subject of Domestic Missions among their people.—Minutes of the General Assembly, held at Charleston, South Carolina, May 26, 1852, p. 215.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON DISCRETIONARY POWERS OF THE BOARD.

ON APPLICANTS.—In answer to the questions propounded by the Presbyteries of Union and French Broad, the Assembly would say, that though they do not recognize in the Board of Domestic Missions the authority to sit in judgment upon the orthodoxy or morality of any minister who is in good standing in his own Presbytery; yet from the necessity of the case, they must exercise their own sound discretion upon the expediency or in expediency of appointing, or withholding any appointment, from any applicant, holding themselves amenable to the General Assembly for all their official acts.—Minutes 1830, p. 16.

ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.—Overture No. 13, a memorial from the Presbytery of Logansport, desiring the Assembly to say whether the Board of Domestic Missions has the power of reducing the amounts recommended to be given in aid to any churches, under the care of any Presbytery, without consulting such Presbytery; and if so, whether the Board has not an equal right to take away the whole amount so recommended in any case. It was Resolved, That while the Assembly expects the Board of Domestic Missions to pay great respect to the advice of the Presbyteries, touching missionaries labouring within their bounds, yet, in the distribution of its funds, the action of the Board must be controlled by the state of its treasury, and the relative importance of the various missionary fields under their care.—Minutes, 1852, p. 221.

FEIBLE CHURCHES TO BE COMBINED.—Resolved, That each Presbytery in our communion be recommended to discourage the sundering of feeble churches now united in support of the gospel, and generally to combine together such feeble churches in appropriate fields of labour, that the Board of Domestic Missions may be relieved from the need of a large allowance in such cases, and, where practicable, from the need of any allowance in aid of ministerial support.—Minutes, 1846, p. 206.

MISSION HOUSE

No. 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

All letters relating to missionary appointments and other operations of the Board, should be addressed to

Rev. Thomas L. Janeway, D. D., Corresponding Secretary, No. 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Donations and subscriptions to

S. D. Powel, Treasurer, 907 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD AND COMMITTEE.

1. BOARD meets second Monday in every month, at four P. M., except the month of June, when it meets at 3 o'clock on the third Tuesday, which is the time of the Annual meeting.

2. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month, at half-past three P. M.

BEQUESTS.

The General Assembly which met in 1840, authorized their Board of Domestic Missions to apply to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania for an Act of Incorporation. This application was made, and a Charter obtained, and the Board have now an incorporated Board of Trustees, entitled, "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America." To this body all legacies or bequests for the Board of Domestic Missions should now be given.

The State laws differ so much, that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give the RIGHT CORPORATE NAME.
